Thick-walled heat shrink tubing, 1m TREDUX HA47-13/4 type heat shrink, thick-walled design, shrink ratio 4:1, inner diameter before shrinking 13mm, inner diameter after shrinking 4mm, nominal diameter in other inches, wall thickness after shrinking 2.4mm, length 1m, operating temperature -55 ... 110°C, color black, material polyolefins (PO-X), halogen-free, with inner adhesive, thick-walled and robust shrink tubing with thermoplastic inner adhesive. Extremely resistant to mechanical stress. Resistant to solvents, acids and alkalis. Due to the high shrink rate, the hose easily adapts to large diameter differences. Reliably protects against moisture and other environmental influences. Packed in a stable display box. A length of 1 m sections allows an individual compilation of the required hose sizes. Each TREDUX hose is identified by a label with EAN barcodes. Due to the high resilience and weather resistance, this heat-shrink tubing is particularly suitable for use in the ground and for high mechanical loads.
